*PLEASE READ BOTH SECTIONS CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING****

Dear Kroka Expeditions Parent(s)/Guardian(s),

During the programs with Kroka Expeditions your child will be living outside, walking barefoot, working with sharp tools and fire, climbing tall rocks and trees, jumping into streams, paddling and swimming in fast moving rivers, carrying heavy loads over uneven ground, tying boats to vans and trailers, living in the elements and with the possibility of getting cold, wet, hot, sun burned, poison ivy. We may also be driving in vehicles on roads, by far the most dangerous of all of our activities. While we can often predict the coming storm we can not always predict other drivers around us.

There are objective risks of getting hurt in all of what we do. It is our job as teachers and guides to be well prepared to do all we can to protect and take care of all our participants. We are people too, and we may make mistakes. Besides human mistakes there are natural events such as floods, storms, etc, and some times those events are more powerful than we are.

By signing this agreement you acknowledge that in exchange for the privilege of your child's participation in Kroka Expedition's programs, you accept all of the known and unknown risks involved. If your child is 13 or older you are confirming here that you have carefully gone over with your child the Student Contract and you believe that your child has a good understanding of what is expected of him/her in regards to their own responsibility in taking good care of him/her self as well as the equipment used at Kroka Expeditions. By signing below, you agree to be responsible for the repair or replacement of any items that get lost or damaged under your child's care/use.
